

Cue Bidding, Cue Bidding Every Monday Morning In April

10:00AM-12:15PM

Class Size Is Limited!

Pre-Registration Is Required. Sign Up By
E-mailing Sherry At Sherryannkay@aol.com.

What is a Cue Bid? Is it Always Forcing? Can I pass a Cue Bid? Is it always artificial? When do you use a Cue Bid? Can the opener Cue Bid? Can anyone Cue Bid? Can responder Cue Bid? Does A Cue Bid show support for partner's suit? Does a Cue Bid ask for a stopper? Does a Cue Bid show a stopper? Is a Cue Bid a limit raise? Is a Cue Bid game forcing? Is a Cue Bid a jump? What does a Cue Bid show? Are Cue Bids conventional? Are Cue Bids alertable? And many more questions answered.

Class Format: A competitive bidding class for Intermediate Players of all levels, with a theme. We play 5-6 hands a session. Every table plays the same hands at the same time. After each hand the class reviews the bidding, the contract, the opening lead, the play of the hand & the defense. For more information about the classes contact Sherry at sherryannkay@aol.com or (212) 772 2853. It is $25 a lesson or 11 lessons for $250.

Prior attendance not required! All classes self contained.

www.manhattanbridgeclub.co